

*For EHR developers to accommodate specification updates issued annually, we note that it would be necessary for two specification versions to be accepted by CMS during any overlap periods. So for example, if a provider were to submit for year 2014 in January 2015 it would be acceptable for him to electronically submit either files using the June 2013 specifications or the July 2014 specification updates.